Peggy Marie Carney Tells Vows With L. F. Rockhill

At home in Willowbrook following their honeymoon at Lytle Creek are Leonard Frank Rockhill and his bride, the former Miss Peggy Marie Carney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carney, of 1445 W. 216th street.

The wedding was solemnized in Normandy Wedding Chapel, Long Beach, Dr. Johnston Calhoun officiating at the double ceremony in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the couple.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in white linen fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and trimmed simply with white silk cord at neck and hemlines. Her flowers were double orchids carried on a white Bible.

Miss Frances Rockhill, as maid of honor, wore a two-piece gown of pink linen with pink cord trim, complemented by Hawaiian orchids. Melvin Rockhill attended the bridegroom as best man.

A reception followed at 1547 W. 221st street and subsequently the happy couple left for their honeymoon. They are receiving their friends at 2140 E. 126th street, Willowbrook.

The bride was graduated from Carbondale Community High School, Ill and from business college in Paducah, Ky. Her husband, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rockhill, of 701 S. Willowbrook avenue, received his diploma from Roosevelt High School, Compton.

GROUND MEAT CHANGES TO DIFFERENT FORM

If you haven't served mock chicken legs to your family for a while, now is the time to do it, suggests Reba Stargis, food authority. They provide an interesting way to serve favorite ground meat, they are easy on the budget, and they capture the imagination of young and old alike.

Make your "drumsticks" of ground beef, pork, veal, lamb or ham, or any combination of these meats. Add seasonings and an egg for binding, then shape on skewers to resemble chicken legs. Cook with pineapple cubes and green pepper rings for a summery treat.

Another version is called "city chicken." This is usually made with cubes of meat which are dipped in egg and milk, then in cracker crumbs, broiled until golden, then covered and cooked slowly until tender. Either version will add new flavor to your summer cooking.

ATTEND FAIR
Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sidwell and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gifford attended the fair at Pomona Tuesday.

REQUIRE SPECIAL CARE . . .

When sending clothes to the cleaner, remove buttons if you are not absolutely certain as to how well they can stand the cleaning process. Plastic buttons often melt in the pressing as they are not strong enough to withstand high temperatures. Metal backed buttons sometimes get rusty and stain the fabric around them. Other types of buttons may break, chip, or tear away from the garment leaving a hole, if care is not taken in handling. When putting clothes through the washing machine, make certain that buttoned side of the garment is turned inward to protect both the garment and the buttons.

HOSPITALIZED VETS ENJOY HOSPITALITY

Each week during the past year, canteen service made an average of 15 parties in veterans' hospitals complete by serving refreshments — not just coffee and doughnuts, but cake, sandwiches and punch. Some 13,000 hospitalized ex-service men and women participated

MOTOR SERVICE GROUP IN MANY ASSIGNMENTS

Have you ever driven 431,314 miles during a year? Motor Service volunteers did just that during the past 12-months' period. Assignments included taking entertainers, hostesses, canteen workers and supplies to parties held in veterans' hospitals.

379 HOMES FINANCED

A total of 379 homes — the largest figure for any month since the record year of 1946 — were purchased for California veterans through the low-interest State Farm and Home Purchase Plan during August.
